TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1913 -- VETERANS START FOR GETTYSBURG. -- Williamsport Delegation Started for Battlefield on Special Cars Yesterday Morning. -- TRAINLOAD OF TH FAMOUS BUCKTAILS -- Passed Through The, City During Day On Way To "The Front." -- The streets of Williamsport were lined yesterday with veterans of the Civil war on their way to Gettysburg and fiftieth anniversary of that great battle. They came from this city, from outlying sections, from points on other roads and went through from far distant cities, but in all was the spirit of the old days and there was a look of anticipation on every face. Early in the morning the streets began to fill with these veterans especially the local ones, headed for the Pennsylvania stations and the three special coaches which carried them away. Marched Erect. The bulk of the Oldtimers however. gathered at Reno Post hall and some time before train time started out for a parade. in which they marched slowly but erect and smiling to their many friends, through the streets to Market Street station. Arrived there they boarded the trains and went away on the long trip. ... Those Who Went. The Williamsport veterans who went to Gettysburg were: ... William G. Moffett ...
