OBITUARY -- GIDEON MOSER. -- Funeral arrangement are completed today for Gideon Moser, aged 76 years, of Dalton, esteemed citizen, Civil war veteran and former resident of this City, whose death occurred at his home late Saturday after a lingering illness. Services will be held in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in this city, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. John A. Bender, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, and Rev. W. S. Crandall, of the Dalton M. E. church, officiating.

Born in Berk County [more likely Lehigh Co.], Pa., September 1, 1839, Mr. Moser came to this city in 1882 and took up his residence here. He was one of the first to respond to President Abraham Lincoln's call for volunteer at the outbreak of the Civil war and enlisted in the Twenty-eighth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, at Mauch Chunk. In the battle at Chancellorsville he was slightly wounded and in an engagement at Ringgold, Pa. [Ga.], he was shot in the head by a musket ball and carried it all his life. When he had recovered from the injury [at Chancellorsville] he was transferred to the Twelfth Army corps and fought in the Battle of Gettysburg. He was then transferred to the Twentieth corps, went with Sherman on his march to the sea and took part in the grand review in Washington, D. C., at the close of the war.

Mr. Moser was a member of the Ezra Griffen Post G. A. R. and had many friends in this city. He is survived by his wife, one son, Wallace C. Moser, a member of the Lackawann county bar; one brother, David W., a mine foreman, of West Scranton, and a sister, Mrs. Kate Whitestone, of Wet Scranton.

Throngs of sorrowing friends and relatives filled the church to its capacity. Many beautiful floral designs were in evidence and testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Commander F. F. Shelton was in charge of the G. A. R. delegation. The officer of the day was Joseph R. Harper and James DeGraw acted as chaplain. Fred Berge was bugler.

The pall-bearers were all members of the sons of Veterans, as follows: John F. Vliet, J. Lewis, Charles Bloom, 'C. B. Miller, William Langdon and D. S. Freeman. They accompanied the body from Dalton to this city.

The honorary pall- bearers were: George Geary, S. N. Callender, James DeGraw, S. B. Mott, S. F. Lingfelder and John W. Bayley.

Brief services were held at the cemetery, when a salute was fired over the grave of the deceased. The members of the firing squad were: J. G. Sanders, Frank Zimmerman, T. H. Allen and Fred Kittle.

Floral presentations were made by the veterans at the cemetery as follows: A wreath, George Geary; roses, S. B. Mott, and a laurel wreath, John W. Bayley.
